The Connecticut Women Veterans' Network (VETNET), sponsored by the Connecticut Department of Veteran Affairs is established to assist Connecticut's approximately 15,000 women veterans. The VETNET will help with information and access to benefits women veterans have earned through their service in the US Armed Forces.

CT VETNET activities include:

1. Increasing visibility and awareness about the contributions women have made in America's military
2. Reaching out to women veterans in Connecticut
3. Establishing a database of women veterans living in Connecticut to facilitate communications & disseminate information about accessing benefits, services and programs available to veterans.
4. Advocating for the special needs of women veterans with local, state and federal agencies.
5. Identifying existing health and human resources available for women veterans.
6. Providing mutual support and assistance for Connecticut women veterans and their families.
